

Deggendorfer Donaufest

12th – 16th of July 2023

Important information about the DONAUMARKT

- The tents have the dimensions 4x 4m, are equipped with wooden-floor and have a power distribution cabinet for normal current (220V)
- The tents are empty, so please bring the whole interior with you: tables, wardrobes, utensils, etc. for the presentation of your goods, including the lighting for the evening hours
- Opening hours for the market:
Wednesday: 06:00 pm – 10:00 pm
Thursday - Sunday: 11:00 am – 10:00 pm
- The use of the tents is for free and you don't have to pay any fee. There is a security service watching the festival area but not exclusively the area of the DONAUMARKT. Despite this service please be aware of the fact that the DONAUMARKT is not continuously watched during the night.
- No open drinks or open dishes may be offered. All goods must be packed. There is no refrigerator available for the products, this must be organized by yourself if necessary.
- The countries should also present themselves on the international cultural stage "Bogenbachbühne" (dance groups, folklore groups, music groups), which is close to the DONAUMARKT. Of course, every country should also present itself touristic and have the corresponding information material offered.
